The Justin Michael Ingerman Scholarship Application

Name: ________________________________________________________________

LSAC Account Number: ________________________________

Email address: _____________________________________

The Application Process:

Students who wish to apply for the scholarship should read the brief biography of Justin on the Admitted Student Website and attach a written statement answering one option in Question 1 (a or b) and Question 2.

A selection committee including Justin’s family and friends will choose the finalists, who will then be interviewed prior to the final selection.

Completed applications must be submitted no later than March 23, 2015 and should be submitted via email to: johanne.johnston@temple.edu or sent to:

Temple University Beasley School of Law
Office of Admissions
1719 North Broad Street
Philadelphia, PA 19122

Question 1  Please answer one of the following:

a. “There are those who look at things as the way they are and ask why. I dream of things that never were and ask why not” - Robert F. Kennedy

Justin was innovative and ambitious, always striving to reach his goals. He had the courage to follow his instincts, without compromising his authenticity. Describe your personal aspirations and why the quote above is meaningful to you.

b. Justin had a unique sense of style and was known for his extensive sneaker collection. He also had a very strong bond with his friends and family. Explain what it is like to be “in your shoes.” What character traits define you? Feel free to be creative in describing yourself, your personal interests and your personality.

Question 2

In what way would the financial support of the Ingerman Scholarship be important to you? How would you explain your financial need for the scholarship? Please explain any particular defining moments or obstacles you have had to overcome to get to this point in your life. We encourage you to be as open and forthcoming as you desire in your response.

Please be sure to include your name and LSAC account number on your written statement.
