Question 1 Please answer one of the following:

a. “There are those who look at things as the way they are and ask why. I dream of things that never were and ask why not” - Robert F. Kennedy

   Justin was innovative and ambitious, always striving to reach his goals. He had the courage to follow his instincts, without compromising his authenticity. Describe your personal aspirations and why the quote above is meaningful to you.

b. Justin was well known for his extensive sneaker collection and had a unique sense of style and fashion. This extended to his personality, making him the man that he was, and allowed for him to create strong bonds with his friends and family. Explain what it is like to walk “in your shoes.” What character and personality traits define you? Please be creative in describing yourself, your interests and your aspirations.

How would the support of the Ingerman Scholarship change you and your future education? Explain your financial need for the scholarship. What are some examples of defining moments or hardships that you have had to face in life which you feel makes you a stronger candidate and has allowed for you to get to this point? Please be as candid and forthcoming as you please in your response.

Please be sure to include your name and LSAC account number on your written statement.
