

J. Dual Degree Opportunities

J.D./M.B.A Program

The School of Law and the School of Business and Management jointly offer a program leading to the conferral of the J.D. and M.B.A. degrees. This program allows its graduates to broaden their career horizons in law, business and public service.

The program offers students the opportunity to earn a J.D. and an M.B.A. with fewer hours of course work than would be required if the two degrees were earned separately. The graduation requirements from each school must be met separately to obtain that school's degree.

A more detailed description of the program is available in the Office of Student Affairs, Barrack 103.

LL.M. in Taxation

Temple J.D. students may earn up to 12 credits toward an LL.M. in Taxation while a J.D. student. The remaining 12 credits for the LL.M. degree must be earned on a part- or full-time basis after graduation from the J.D. program.

Information about the program is available in the Office of Graduate Legal Studies, Klein 710.

LL.M. in TRANSNATIONAL LAW

Students may want to enter this J.D./LL.M. program. Temple J.D. students with an interest in international law may earn up to 12 credits toward an LL.M. in Transnational Law while a J.D. student and may complete the remaining 12 credits on a part- or full-time basis after graduation from the J.D. program. Students must study abroad for at least one semester, or demonstrate sufficient experience living or working abroad.

Information about the program is available in Klein 710.
